Community Profile

Sun City West

Sun City West, about a dozen miles northwest of Phoenix, is a master-planned active adult community for people 55 and over. It began in 1978 when all available land in Sun City, which is two miles east, was built upon.

The community, together with Sun City, has been rated the third best location out of 100 top-rated retirement communities in the nation. Nearly 24,000 residents call Sun City West home and when the community is fully completed there will be a population of 32,000. Sun City West is not incorporated.

Sun City West is designed for an active way of life with eight golf courses and four recreation centers. Numerous clubs and civic organizations are available. Residents are often said to be "too busy to retire."

PRINCIPAL ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES

The majority of Sun City West residents are retired and income is derived from Social Security, stocks and bonds, investments and savings. Hundreds of jobs are created by Sun City West residents with most employment going to people from El Mirage, Surprise, Glendale and Peoria.

SCENIC ATTRACTIONS

The Sundome Center for the Performing Arts is located in Sun City West. It has more than 7,000 seats and brings top name entertainment to the area in a number of shows each year.

Lake Pleasant Regional Park is to the north and provides boating, fishing, swimming and other water sports. The lake has recently been expanded to 10,000 acres.

White Tanks Regional Park is to the west and has unusual Indian petroglyphs or rock carvings in its 26,000 acres.

Camping, hiking and picnicking are popular activities here.

The area northwest of Sun City West is known as "gold country" and many interesting ghost towns are found in the Hieroglyphic and Bradshaw Mountains. Vulture, Bumblebee, Constellation, Octave, Tip Top and Crown King are just some of the old mining towns found in the area.

Pioneer Arizona Living History Museum is northeast of Sun City West. It is a faithful replica of an 1880s Arizona village with many original buildings taken from historic towns in the state. Costumed volunteers put on demonstrations such as quilting and blacksmithing. Pioneer is closed in the summer.

The Black Canyon Shooting Range, northeast of Sun City West, is a Maricopa County park with 1,400 acres devoted to indoor/outdoor rifle and pistol ranges and also offers five miles of archery trails.

The Community

Three fire stations with paramedics are strategically positioned along with a staffed Maricopa County Sheriff's station. Other services available to residents include Lending Hands, offering medical, house guest and children's furniture and equipment without charge. Hospice and Interfaith services are available as well as Area Transportation and Master Gardeners.

Arizona State University offers non-credit enrichment courses in Sun City West or credit courses at ASU West. Rio Salado Community College offers special interest classes at various convenient locations.

In addition to all the amenities of a major metropolitan area, we are close to one of the largest enclosed shopping malls in the country, anchored by four major department stores. We are 30 minutes from Lake Pleasant with its miles and miles of fishing, sailing and boating pleasures. Two hours north, you will find the spectacular Sedona red rocks, and winter skiing near Flagstaff. The center of the country's largest Ponderosa Pine National Forest, Flagstaff is the jumping-off point to the Grand Canyon, the equally magnificent Lake Powell and the storied Indian reservations. Just 3 hours South and you are in Old Mexico. Arizona is a wonderland of mountains, forests and incredible desert sunsets at no extra charge.

Sun City West is an unincorporated community in Maricopa County, Arizona. A volunteer Property Owners and Residents Association (PORA) provides local information services, investigates deed restrictions, and acts on behalf of the residents by interfacing with county government on political issues affecting our community. The Ambassadors of Sun City West is a subsidiary of PORA responsible for promoting the community among potential home owners.
